"WE STUFF"—A. K. Doe, of the Pratt-Gilbert Company, returned yesterday from San Francisco and Los Angeles, where he has been for the past ten days in the interest of his firm. Mr. Doe reports unusual interest in Arizona among the members of his supply and jobbing firms, and predicts for the coming year a big influx of California produce during 1917.

MASQUERADE BALL—Every arrangement for the complete holding of the annual masquerade ball under the auspices of the Woodmen Circle. This year's affair is to be held at Patrick Hall tomorrow evening and there is every indication that it will be the social success of the season. HERE TAKING PICTURES—J. H. Buffum of the Selig-Tribune News Service, was in Phoenix yesterday preparing to take pictures of the Apache Trail, Catalina Hot Springs and other points of interest in Arizona. He had his movie camera unlimbered, when word came to proceed to Calexico in the hope of securing pictures of the aviators lost in Mexico. He said he would return in a few days and then Arizona would be given more publicity through the medium of the Chicago News-Tribune.

MARTIN DISCHARGED—When a man rents a horse drives it until it is spent and leaves it by the roadside, he is not a horse thief, ruled the court in dismissing the charge against Robert Martin who rented the animal from the Cowboy livery stable. Justice Wheeler held that as long as the horse was found Martin was not guilty. There is another charge against Martin in Justice De Souza's court where he will shortly be given his preliminary hearing. In this instance the complaining witness is the Palo Alto stable.

SPRINKLED WITH CREAM—Because the sprinkling of the streets of Phoenix with contraband booze caused such a furor, Old Man Troubles decided yesterday to carry the thing along a little further. That's one reason why Central avenue from Van Duren street to near Washington street yesterday afternoon was given a "Grade A Cream" bath. Walter P. Smith of Scottsdale bumped his automobile into the rear of a wagon belonging to L. H. Rhoadt, at Van Duren street. The horse took fright and ran to Gass Brothers Chop House seeking safety. He left the contents of two cans of cream strewn along the pavement to indicate to Driver Alexander Popoff, the direction he had taken. Smith, Rhoadt and Popoff settled their own differences in the matter of placing the responsibility.

CONFEDERATE SONS TO ORGANIZE HERE

Following closely after the organization of a local chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy comes the announcement that a local camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans will be organized in Phoenix.

Attorney Thomas J. Croft, a Virginian, now a resident of Phoenix, has received authorization from Commander-in-Chief Ernest Baldwin, of the Sons of Confederate Veterans, for the organization of a local camp to be composed of residents in this vicinity who were eligible for membership in this organization. Those who served honorably in the Confederate cause during the war between the states and their descendants, are eligible for membership.

"Everyone who is eligible for membership in this organization will be given an opportunity to join the local camp of Sons of Confederate Veterans, either at the time of organizing or afterward," said Mr. Croft. "The purpose of this organization is primarily to keep alive and active the spirit of the South and to establish and maintain the historical record of those whose families defended the cause of the South in the Civil War. I feel it is the duty of every Southerner for the sake of his family, to establish the record of his family during the Civil War, and I know of no better way to do this than acting now through the local camp when it is organized."

Mr. Croft states that within a few days a meeting will be called of all Southerners interested in this move, and that organization will be perfected without delay.

HARKER ASKS COURT TO COMPEL PHOENIX TO SUPPLY HIS WATER

Mandamus proceedings against the city of Phoenix, the mayor, the commissioners and the general manager of the city water department was instituted yesterday by David B. Harker asking the court to compel the city to furnish and supply the plaintiff with water.

Harker is the owner of lots 6 and 7, block 18 east Grand avenue and alleges under a contract he is entitled to procure water from the city at a certain rental. He declares that he has been ready and willing to comply with the contract but the city, through its officials, has cut the water pipe and discontinued the water supply.

The contract to which Harker refers in his complaint was entered into in June 1911 by John C. Davis who acquired a vested right to the furnishing of the water on the described premises by terms of the contract Davis secured permission from the city to connect a water pipe at Fifteenth avenue and Roosevelt street and bought and installed the pipe from that point to Harker's place, paying the city $1 a month for water for domestic use. In consideration of his buying and laying the pipe and paying the monthly water rate, the department agreed to supply the water. Davis sold and assigned his vested right to Harker who alleges that the city has failed to carry out the contract since January 12.

PERSON WILL RETURN
SAYS HIS ATTORNEY

Stating that he had received word from his client Harry Person that he had been called to San Diego by the serious illness of his mother-in-law, F. C. Struckmeyer, attorney for Person, declared that his client would return to Phoenix within the next ten days.

Mr. Struckmeyer said that the filing of the affidavits on the day of Person's departure was merely a coincidence and that he proposed filing counter affidavits this morning denying all the statements contained in these now on record. He reiterated his assertions made the day following the unannounced journey of Person, that "Puss" Hall would not testify according to her affidavit, which she claims she had never owned nor sold to Harry Person a four stone Tiffany diamond ring. In the reflex suit brought by Person against Jeff Adams, sheriff, and Allen Burns, intervener, the plaintiff claimed to have bought the diamonds from "Puss" Hall. In order to give the plaintiff's counsel time to file the counter affidavits Judge Lyman yesterday put over the matter of ruling on the motion for a new trial in one week. It is understood that if an order is made granting the motion an appeal will be taken.

UNDER PEACE BOND—B. F. Walker pleaded guilty to the charge of threatening to kill B. F. Mansel, when brought before Justice De Souza yesterday. He was placed under a $750 peace bond. The trouble between the men arose over the ownership of a cow.

Spores, Miss Eva Wright, Miss Irene Abbott, A. E. Boyce and Hill, R. A. Thiele, A. C. Davis, J. H. Hogan, W. L. Burk and Charles Baldwin.

MOTION CALENDAR—The motion picture court yesterday. Motion for a new trial was denied in the case of Barbara T. Bely vs. the Germania Fire Insurance company. The suit, received in Phoenix on a house destroyed last summer was heard before a jury which returned a verdict for the plaintiff.

MRS. JOHN FOSTER PINKERTON

Sarah Ann Wetzel was born in Carlsbad, Pa., Nov. 17, 1839, and went to her reward, Jan. 11, 1917, aged 77 years. She was a native of Pennsylvania, and in 1865 she went to Illinois where she taught school for one year, when she met and married John Foster Pinkerton. In 1883 they moved to Edger, Neb., then to Shickley, Neb., where in 1896 they came to Arizona where she lived till her life's work was ended.

She joined the Methodist Episcopal church when a young girl and every Sunday found in her part of worship unless prevented by illness. She was an ardent temperance worker and has been a member of the W. C. T. U. for thirty years. On the thirtieth of next May, Mr. and Mrs. Pinkerton had planned to celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

Her death was very sudden and came as a great shock to her loved ones. She spent a very quiet night previous to her death, but at 6 a. m. her husband was awakened by her difficult breathing. Then he saw her face light up with an unearthly light, she lifted her hand to his face, smiled and said, "Tell them all good-bye." Her children were sent for and when the aged father met them he said, "The light of our home has gone out!"

She leaves beside her husband, six children, Claude W. Pinkerton, of North Yakima, Wash.; Justin B. Pinkerton, U. S. navy; Burke L. Pinkerton, Phoenix; Chas. D. Pinkerton, Seattle, Wash.; Mamie R. Jarrett, Phoenix; and Lloyd M. Pinkerton, Phoenix; two brothers, Moses R. Wetzel, of Stonington, Ill., and Frank B. Wetzel, of Kansas City, and a sister, Miss Kate M. Wetzel, of Newville, Pa., besides ten grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held at the home, 517 North Fourth street, last Friday morning, conducted by Rev. Harker, his text being, "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." The body was left at the Whitney parlors awaiting the arrival of Claude and Justin.

Mother! We have all known her. Not all of us in the same person, but the same glory frames each separate face in the aureole of its own divinity. And whether it be my mother or yours now crossing into "the undiscovered country from which bourne no traveler returns," we bow our heads in reverent silence, while the passing cortege bears the sacred dust to its present rest, and our hearts swell with sympathy and a new sense of fellowship for all who have followed a like procession, and suffered a like sorrow.

RUTH ROSE IN RELIEF WORK

Miss Ruth Rose has followed the footsteps of scores of American, French and English women, who have heard the call of the needy and joined the Belgian relief work.

Word that his sister had crossed the sea to aid in every possible way the suffering of the families in distress, was received yesterday by Jean Rinker Kibbey.

Miss Rose is a young woman of unusual charm and is one of the most attractive and clever actresses of the day. Her most recent success was in the Belgian relief work. "The Unchastened Woman." Miss Rose visited here a few years ago and was a great social favorite. She was accompanied on her western trip by her mother, Mrs. Clara F. Rose, who is expected in Phoenix from Massachusetts on Wednesday. She will be here for an indefinite period, the guest of Mr. Kibbey at his country home on the Black Canyon road.

ED LUKE GOES INTO AUTOMOBILE GAME

Believing that his experience as a deputy sheriff will be of untold value to him in separating a man from his money, Ed Luke yesterday accepted the position of automobile salesman with McArthur Brothers.

Luke, who was deputy under Sheriff Jeff Adams for three and a half years, made a splendid record as an officer of this county. He was brave, daring and persistent, and means to bring all of these qualities into play to sell more cars in Phoenix than any other salesman.

He took several men into custody the first day he was on the job, with the result that his order book contains a number of interesting items.

FRANK BAPTIST IS LEARNING THE ROPES

Frank Baptist, who, it was announced some weeks ago, would be the successor of E. J. Trapp as chief clerk in the state land office, appeared at the state house yesterday, and was busy all day in Land Commissioner Moore's office. It was at first rumored around the capitol that he was officially on the job, but upon inquiry it was learned that Mr. Baptist was in the office merely to see if "he liked it."

Mr. Baptist has disposed of his business affairs as predicted in The Republican, is about to succeed to some state office. He was busy all day about the land office, and evidently was making an effort to acquaint himself with the duties of chief clerk.

Land Commissioner Moore is at present in Washington, D. C., and will not return for some time. It was rumored about the capitol that Mr. Baptist would remain in the land office though he is not on the pay roll, until the land commissioner returns, and then if they agree that they like each other, the combination will be made.

SCHOOL A MENTAL GRAVEYARD

Dr. Henry Suzzallo Says Too Many Detailed Facts Are Taught

"The tendency of the modern school is to become a mental graveyard, according to Dr. Henry Suzzallo, the young president of the University of Washington, in an address to the Oregon teachers' association at Portland a few days ago.

"You fill the child with detailed facts and leave him an intellectual corpse," Doctor Suzzallo told the teachers. "It is better that he be given just a little knowledge rather than so many facts. Fit the boy to think, that is the most important education you can give him."
